FROM: Artem Atanasov, Chief Sales Officer, Centravis

Our dear clients, partners, and friends,

Russia continues its aggression against Ukraine. Only during the massive shelling on December 16, more than 60 missiles were launched on our territory. There are emergency power outages across the country, also there are problems with water and heat supply. At the same time, power system restoration continues. The situation is under control.

This week we finished overhaul of our press line and it has been launched. During the last days we started to produce at full speed. We were supplied with all the electricity we needed. This afternoon due to the massive shelling, we put Centravis production on pause in order to temporarily redirect electricity to the most critical infrastructure of our region. We are waiting for a complete restore of power supply in the Ukrainian energetic system so we can continue operate at our full potential.

Our logistics team constantly controls the safest ways to deliver the finished products. Our Sales offices worldwide in Essen, Milan, Krakow, Lugano, Houston, and Dubai are ready to your requests. The Financial and Administrative Departments, Customer support are ready for your calls and messages.

Production Director Andriy Krasjuk stays in Ukraine and keeps working in Nikopol.

Recently I was on a business trip to Azerbaijan. I hope that the meetings I held in this country will have a positive impact on the growth of sales of our products in the nearest future.

Thanks everyone, who supports Ukraine. Glory to Ukraine!

Sincerely,
Artem Atanasov aatanasov@centravis.com
