FROM: Artem Atanasov, Chief Sales Officer, Centravis

Our dear clients, partners and friends,

For more than a year now, I have been regularly reporting that despite constant shelling and adverse conditions, our production site in Nikopol has not only persevered but has exceeded expectations, consistently meeting our plans and achieving our goals. We remain optimistic that the anticipated counter-offensive by the armed forces of Ukraine will lead to the liberation of most occupied territories, enabling us to continue our work in a more stable environment.

I am delighted to share that Centravis production continues to operate at full capacity. Both our Hot and Cold Shops in Nikopol and our production site in Uzhgorod are functioning seamlessly, with all equipment operating optimally.

Our dedicated logistics team has been tirelessly ensuring the secure and efficient delivery of our finished products, while our global sales offices remain open and accessible, ready to address any inquiries or requests. Our Financial and Administrative Departments, alongside our Customer Support teams, are fully operational and prepared to provide assistance whenever needed.

Centravis CEO Yuriy Atanasov and Production Director Andriy Krasjuk stay in Ukraine and keep working in Nikopol.

I am also pleased to inform you that Centravis is making a strong return to the field of large-scale projects. More and more customers are placing their trust in us, not only for regular orders but also for significant project orders. They recognize us as a reliable supplier that consistently fulfills its obligations.

Throughout these trying times, your unwavering support has been invaluable to us. We sincerely appreciate your trust and belief in our capabilities.

Sincerely,
Artem Atanasov aatanasov@centravis.com
