RE: Situation in Ukraine

Our dear clients, partners, and friends,

Every week on our website we published a letter from Alex Novak, who until April 7 held the position of Chief Sales Officer. The company's management has decided not to renew his contract and to invite him to remain a member of the Board of Directors of Centravis Holding. We thank Alexander for his contribution to the development of Centravis and wish him further professional and personal growth.

From today, the position of CSO is occupied by me, Artem Atanasov, and I will continue to inform you about the current political situation in Ukraine and how Centravis production works.

I believe you know everything about the war from verified and reliable media sources. It is the 44th day of heroic confrontation of the Ukrainian people against Russian full-scale aggression.

In these difficult times, we continue our production, supporting our clients, our people, and our country. Some areas of production are put into operation 24 hours a day. Hot extrusion line, cold pilger mills, heat treatment furnaces and chemical treatment area are working. At this moment the production is focused on the manufacture of tubes and pipes from the billets available in warehouses. We are making every effort to resumption the supply of billets and tools to fulfill new orders.

Despite our severe problems with inbound and outbound logistics we continue to load and dispatch couple of trucks every day to Poland, where the tubes are being re-loaded and sent to our final customers. In Poland these trucks need to pick-up humanitarian help for Ukraine. Our goal is to ship regularly and steadily in small lots all finished goods which our mill can produce. We are trying to be as predictable as possible and trying to communicate with all our valued customers without interruptions. Following discussions with you we would try to prioritize our shipments as much as possible to accommodate your business goals.

Our Sales offices worldwide in Essen, Milan, Krakow, Lugano, Houston, and Dubai are open, our Financial and Administrative Departments, Customer support are ready for your calls and messages.

Centravis is very grateful to each of you for support during this difficult time.

I am at your disposal as well, with all your requests for information or inquiries.

Sincerely,

Artem Atanasov
