Dear clients, partners, and friends,

Greetings from Ukraine,

At Centravis, we continue to hold strong, with all our operations at the plant running smoothly.

Over the past year and 4 months, you've seen many updates from me saying how stable Centravis is. But we recognize that words on a page can sometimes become repetitive.

So, this week, for one week, we thought we'd change things up a bit.

Instead of the usual written update, we've prepared a short video to give you a fresh perspective on our daily operations and the heart behind our operations. We hope this visual glimpse into our world offers a renewed understanding of our dedication and the ongoing resilience of our team.

Here is the link to the video: <https://youtu.be/MsEHsBvU4Wg>
Make sure you're watching in the highest possible quality.

Please do watch the video, and as always, if you have any questions or feedback, we're just an email or call away.

Thank you for staying with us on this journey. Your support and understanding mean the world to us.

Best regards,
