Dear Clients and Partners,

I'm delighted to inform you that our operations are running smoothly and efficiently. Stable energy and water supplies ensure that our production processes continue without interruption. All our equipment is functioning at optimal performance levels, with no issues to report. This enables us to meet our production targets effectively and maintain the high standards you expect from us. Our dedicated team at Centravis remains fully engaged, motivated, and prepared to address any challenges that may arise.

Thank you for your continued confidence in Centravis. Together, we will continue to reach new heights and contribute positively to our industry's future.

Best regards,
Artem Atanasov
